

WHAT TO EAT

The Mexican evolution

by June Lee

inSing.com - 3 April 2013 3:25 PM

15 top Mexican dishes to try in Singapore

Muchos Mexican Bar & Restaurant (2010)

For burritos

The slightly grubby décor (probably the scene of many a tequila party) won't win any kudos, but think of Muchos as a casual, fun friend that you can visit anytime for hearty, classic Mexican dishes. This Katrina Holdings (the company behind Balithai, Hutong and Bayang) mid-range outlet opened in 2010 and has two outlets: the Clarke Quay one is well received by expatriates and tourists, while the younger outlet at Plaza Singapura has more street food selections. Our hunger pang pick is the burrito (from $17.90), filled with a choice of hot grilled chicken, vegetables or beef, and accompanied by a delish mango-tomato salsa and chunky fresh guacamole.

Muchos Mexican Bar & Restaurant | Address: Block 3D River Valley Road, #01-04 Clarke Quay and 68 Orchard Road, #01-34 Plaza Singapura | Tel: 63384748 and 63386001 | Opening hours: Sun-Thu noon-midnight, Fri & Sat midnight-1am and Sun-Thu 11am-11pm, Fri & Sat 11am-1am

Source:

http://www.hungrygowhere.com/dining-guide/what-to-eat/the-mexican-evolution-*aid-95713f00

/